

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1911
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1912

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1912.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

The world is small if you would dodge
A man to whom some coin is due;
But it's a mighty big place when You're busting some men who owe you.

Among the Maysville people registered at the Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, Saturday, were Mr. N. S. Calhoun and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Anderson of Lexington.

Peculiar Accident

Last evening while sitting on Mr. Robert Luman's porch in East Second street, Mrs. Jane Conrad was a victim of a mysterious accident. A penny was thrown from some unknown source striking the venerable lady above the right eye inflicting a severe gash from which the blood flowed freely. There was no one on the street and no cars passing at the time and where the missile came from is a profound mystery.

Turntable Out of Commission

The L. & N. turntable near Forest avenue was broken and all engines had to be run backwards to Paris Monday to turn right about face so as to pull out-going trains.

One would suppose that the L. & N. could not be the C. & O.'s turntable, but it does not for some cause.

Thieves About

Some time last night the dry cleaning establishment of Walker & Griffin in Commerce street was broken into by thieves and nearly all the garments carried off. Among the articles taken were nine pairs of pants and three suits of clothing. An entrance was made by cutting out a large window pane.

A Mishap

Yesterday morning while en route to this city, a horse attached to a barouche occupied by Mrs. Charles Hunter, son and daughter, shied at a passing automobile near Wadsworth's gate on the Lexington pike, and being touched with the whip by the driver began kicking and running. The occupants were spilled out, the vehicle turned over and wrecked. Fortunately the occupants escaped with minor bruises and a good shake up.

TAFT HAS THE VOTES—IF?

The situation at Chicago is so tense that even bloodshed may result.

The insane desire of Roosevelt to buy or steal the nomination or terrorism the convention, is something unheard of in our country. Of course, he will never be President.

Taft may also lose out for the nomination, but as the convention now stands Taft has a score or more of votes to the good and stands to organize the convention and win the nomination on the first ballot.

Roosevelt and his Socialist Governors will start a rough house and bolt and nominate Teddy as a second ticket.

It looks to our prejudiced eyes like the Teutonic Teddy is bumping into the iceberg, William Howard Taft.

The convention meets at noon. In the meantime, God reigns and the Government at Washington still stands.

PUNK AND PIFFLE

Yesterday's Game "On de Bum" and Maysville Falls Down—Heart Failure

Those who witnessed yesterday's ball game here between Maysville and Frankfort were loud in their assertions that it was not what we wanted. There is always a howl coming when the home team loses—hence this howl.

In these days is to the honeyard with bone-head losers.

Howsoever and nevertheless, etc., yesterday Frankfort put a crimp in Maysville's standing by the noble score of 8-0.

The features were the battling of Clever, Williams, Sanford, Snyder, Gaet and Weitzel. The game was started in a drizzling rain, which soon passed over.

The score—
Frankfort.....1 1 0 0 0 5 0 0 1—8
Maysville.....0 0 0 4 1 0 0 1 0—6

Batteries—Weitzel, Cornwell and Gliddo, Wellman, Bear and Knoble. Two-base hits—Wellman, McBrier. Three base hits—Knoble, Weitzel. Sacrifice hits—McBrier, Comins, Woodruff, Saebach. Sacrifice fly—Woodruff. Bases on balls—Off Weitzel, 5 off Wellman, 3 off Bear 1, off Cornwell 2.

Struck Out—By Cornwell 3, by Wellman 2, by Bear 5. Base hits—Six hits and five runs off Weitzel in five innings; eleven hits and seven runs off Wellman in six innings. Left on bases—Frankfort 7, Maysville 9. Double plays—Stadfeldt to Carmony. Wild pitch—Wellman. First base on errors—Frankfort 1, Maysville 2. Time—2:10. Umpire—Kelly.

WEATHER REPORT

RAIN, COOLER TODAY; WEDNESDAY, UNSETTLED.

Miss Lida Berry is teaching a summer term of music. Anyone desiring to enter will please apply to 215 West Second street.

Dismissed

Chester Price, one of the most notorious characters and escapees in the city, was arraigned in Judge Rosser's Court yesterday on a charge of shooting to kill. David Murray, father of the boy shot, swore out the warrant. When young Murray was placed on the witness stand he swore that the shooting was accidental and not intentional, hence there was no alternative for the Court other than discharge the accused. It is said he maintains a notorious place, a real menace to other good citizens of the vicinity. He should be suppressed for the good of the general public.

DAM NO. 34

Above Maysville to Cost $1,500,000—Work to Begin This Week

Dr. A. N. Ellis has returned from Cincinnati where he was informed by Lieutenant Colonel Jervay, engineer in charge of the Ohio river improvement, that work will begin this summer on Ohio River Dam No. 34, just above Maysville, and which has been located on the farm of Dr. Ellis on the Ohio side and the Pelham farm on the Kentucky side, the sites being only 3 miles from the Maysville wharf.

This dam will be one of the great contracts along the river and will cost $1,500,000.

One may imagine what a lot of money it will leave hereabouts and what a magnificent undertaking it will be when finished. It will be only a short distance for the present terminus of the Maysville Street Railway.

Unintentional Omissions

In THE PUBLIC LEDGER's article yesterday concerning the new Gam thaler, there were two unintentional omissions of contractors, viz: Murray & Thomas of Maysville, who supplied all the beautiful marble work, and Capt. John V. Dee, who furnished the brick work. Both are entitled to special mention for the high class of material used and the workmanship furnished.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE

Springdale, Fears, Cottageville and Other Hamlets Now on the Map

A town without telephone connection is dead to the live events of the world. The news trickles in after its chestnut to the main lines. So it was with Springdale, Fears, Cottageville and other small hamlets in Mason and Lewis counties. They had no 'phone connection and were a hundred years behind the times.

But this is now changed by the building of a telephone line from Springdale to Tolleboro, which gives connections with the universe at large; also with Fears, Cottageville, Vanceburg, Maysville, etc.

The new company is known as the Springdale & Tolleboro Mutual Telephone Company, with Landon Hill President, and A. D. Keith Secretary-Treasurer.

Captain C. C. Degman helped put the line through from Springdale by work and digging down to his pocket for a goodly sum, as did numerous others.

(FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

If the Colonel is not in a panic we woefully misread the signs. His indecision his "high staccato tones," his irritability and violence all speak eloquently of a state of mind dangerously near the breaking point.

Roosevelt's Ranting, Rip Roaring Farce.

But that this feeling is shared by his supporters is eloquently vouched for by his cynical backer, Frank A. Munsey, who, in a moment of unguarded candor, allows the Washington Times to tell the truth. As thus:

"For psychological effect, as a move in practical politics, it was necessary for the Roosevelt people to start contests on these early Taft selections in order that a tabulation of delegate strength could be put out that would show Roosevelt holding a good hand in the game. A table showing Taft, 150; Roosevelt, 19; contested, none, would not be very much calculated to inspire confidence, whereas one showing, 'Taft 23; Roosevelt, 19; contested, 127, looked very different.

"That is the whole story of the larger number of Southern contests that were started early in the game. It was never expected that they would be taken very seriously; they served a useful purpose, and now the National Committee is deciding them in favor of Taft—in most cases without real division."

In the burly-burly of the rip-roaring exhibition at Chicago there is danger lest this naive and ingenious contribution to its moving history fail to receive that ample consideration that belongs to it, and, if we rescue it from undeserved neglect, it is not so much that it tells what is new as that it confirms what we have all along insisted to be true.

It was Brother McHarg, you will remember who early discerned what a masterly practitioner of that brand of politics euphemistically known as "practical" the lion-tamer is—not only discerned and discovered, but with singular vigor denounced. He had all a craftsman's admiration for the skill of one more deft than himself, and, as the Great Man might have remarked, McHarg was no slouch. What more natural then than to recruit him for the work of staging and producing the moving drama of the Rape of the South! Who but himself could so conveniently contrive to have contest and conflict spring up in his footsteps? Who else might be expected to invest a "wad" so wonderfully well?

There was a great bunch of money most charitably and unselfishly contributed by those Robber Barons so soon to be robbed of their baronies by their beneficiary, it were wise to place it where it would do the most good, and McHarg, a Taft worker in good standing, would know where to look for results.

We want to say it was a neat job and a workmanlike. That it was a flimsy and unsubstantial was not the fault of its contriver, who is entitled to feel chagrined that so many of his own house should declare that he had no case. When Taft delegates were first seated by unanimous votes the fabric began to crumble; thereafter claims would have to bear at least a semblance of justice, and the seeds of panic were sown. The man who announces that he is going to be trobbled and nothing can avert the larcenous deed does not so much as get sympathy from the police. Like the case of the stolen casket of the prima donna there is a cloud of doubt hard to dispel.

The Colonel's advent must be regarded as a reflection on the Laodicean lukewarmness of his lieutenants; not with such dastardly listlessness may a desperate deed be done; without the semblance of a smile the candidate who is not a candidate may properly remark that there has been too much rosewater about the proceedings. And so he descends into the arena to give, or to receive, the coup de grace, beneath a now sombrero he wears his fighting face; there is work to be done, a man's work, and his managers, scared at what he may do and at what they have done for him, are desperately working the S. O. S. signal overtime.

They tell a story of a Southern darkey panic-stricken and palsied by fear; while the earthquake and the hills rocked he was heard to pray more or less as follows: "Oh! Lord, come and save this poor nigger! Come yourself, dear Lord! don't send your son! This is no time for children!"—Louisville Times.

They're off at Chicago—part of them are badly off.

The Taft smile is illuminating the political horizon once more.

Wouldn't you like to take a squint at Roosevelt's fighting face about now?

Roosevelt said, "under no circumstances will I accept another nomination," and the convention will see to it that he does not.

To be a real progressive one only has to be ready to do any high-handed act in the political calendar. A radical progressive is really worse than an anarchist, because he can fool the honest, common people easier.

THE FLAREBACK OF THE STAMPEDE.

Washington Star. "Do you think you will be able to stampede the convention?" "I'm not going to try," replied the orator. "I have found that the person who tries to lead a stampede is liable to create a confusion that puts him in grave danger of being run over from behind."

HIS TROUBLE NOT OF HEART

Real Facts In Regard To F. R. Huffman's Illness. Relief Obtained By Curing His Stomach Ailments.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mr. F. R. Huffman, of this city, says: "I suffered dreadfully with what I thought was heart trouble, and tried various medicines in vain.

After other remedies had failed, Thedford's Black-Draught restored me to health. I would not feel safe without Black-Draught in the house. I consider it worth its weight in gold.

"It cured my indigestion, and by this means I was restored to health. I can not express my gratitude for its benefits."

Good health depends on the condition of your digestion. Poor digestion and good health do not go together.

Thedford's Black-Draught will thoroughly cleanse and set in order your digestive system.

It has done this for others, during the past 70 years, and is today the most popular vegetable liver remedy on the market. Try it.

Insist on Thedford's. Price 25c.

The Kentucky Made New

Reconstructed and modernized the battleship Kentucky, built in 1896, which has been in the Norfolk Navy Yard nearly three years, has been placed back in commission. She is ready to be restored to the fleet. She is considered the equal of many of the newer battleships, save possibly in the strength of her armor. Her guns and masts are like those of the new vessels, her machinery is new, or practically so, and expert opinion of her generally describes her as all but as good as a new ship.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

VALUABLE ADVICE FOR MAYSVILLE READERS

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Mayville woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. Sam Neal, 497 West Second street, Mayville, Ky., says: "Although I have never used Doan's Kidney Pills myself, I can recommend them. One of my family had a great deal of trouble from his back and kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills made him entirely better and he always praises them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Yesterday was Bunker Hill day and today, June 18th, is the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo. Look out, Teddy.

Several telegraph stations on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad will be closed in the next few days on the Cincinnati division, throwing across or more operators out of work.

He was sitting on the track and did not hear the train coming. Stevens has a wife and several small children. His wound may prove fatal.

Double Loss

Harvey Alexander, the four-months old son of Mr. Harvey Durrum, died this morning at 2 o'clock, after a two-weeks' illness at the family home in West Fourth street. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved husband and father in the double loss of wife and son in less than two months. Funeral tomorrow afternoon from the home.

Will Move to the Country

Hon. J. N. Kehon has bought of M. F. Coniglia a residence and about fifteen acres of land, part of the Baldwin farm, on Lexington pike, two miles south of this city, and will move his family to the country today.

It is Mr. Kehon's intention to erect a modern home on the place with all the conveniences of a city residence. Plans for such a structure are already being made. The grounds will also be improved with cement walks and up-to-date outbuildings. The old home will serve as a residence until the new one is finished, which will be at an early date as possible.

His present home in West Second street is one of the finest in the State.

SAND-SCRATCHERS

Of Portsmouth Send Challenge to Poyntz's Big Seven and Lemonheads

Since Poyntz's Big Seven licked the Lemonheads, the juvenile Maysville team, it seems that both teams have broken into the spotlight. Anyhow, they have excited the admiration of baseball fans nearly a hundred miles away, and to prove it, below we publish a challenge from a Portsmouth, Ohio, club which wants to cross bats with a picked nine from Poyntz's Big Seven and the Lemonheads.

The challenge does not say where the game is to be played; probably here.

Following is the document as received by Secretary Milton Russell:

Portsmouth, Ohio, June 15, 1912.

Dear Sir: The Sand-Scratchers will challenge Poyntz's Big Seven to a game of ball. If prefer, you can pick a nine out of the Big Big Seven and Lemonheads.

Bowels are Basis of Child Health

The careful mother, who watches closely the physical peculiarities of her children, will soon discover that the most important thing in connection with a child's constant good health is to keep the bowels regularly open. Stagnant bowels will be followed by loss of appetite, restlessness during sleep, irritability and a dozen and one similar evidences of physical disorder.

At the first sign of such disorder give the child a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring and repeat the dose the following night if necessary—more than that will surely be needed. You will find that the child will recover its accustomed good spirits at once and will eat and sleep normally. This remedy is a vast improvement over salts, cathartics, laxative waters and similar things, which are altogether too powerful for a child. The homes of Mrs. Carrie McDonald, 1038 Trigg Ave., Memphis, Tenn., and Mrs. Sallie E. Griffith, Veechdale, Ky., are always supplied with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and with them, as with thousands of others, there is no substitute for this grand laxative. It is really more than a laxative, for it contains superior tonic properties which help to tone and strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels so that after a brief use of it all laxatives can be dispensed with and nature will do its own work. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 408 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

Plata, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with female weakness and backache, and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise. It would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E.
